

Advisory Committee on Federal Pay

§ 1411.103

complete such review and make a final determination unless, for good cause shown, the Chairman extends such thirty day period. If, after his or her review, the Chairman also refuses to correct or to amend the record in accordance with the request, the individual may file with the Committee a concise statement setting forth the reasons for his or her disagreement with the refusal of the Committee and may seek judicial review of the Chairman's determination under 5 U.S.C. 552a(g)(1)(A). A copy of the corrected record or statement of dispute will be provided to prior recipients of the information in question, to the extent that the Committee has an accounting of the disclosure of that information.

§ 1410.10 Disclosure of record to a person other than the individual to whom the record pertains.

The Committee will not disclose a record to any individual other than to the individual to whom the record pertains without receiving the prior written consent of the individual to whom the record pertains, except as required or permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b).

§ 1410.11 Fees.

If an individual requests copies of his or her record, he or she shall be charged ten cents per page for any copying charges in excess of $25. In cases of indigency, the Committee may waive such fees. In cases where copying charges exceed $25, advance payment will be required.
